PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

I'm delighted to welcome you all to our 143rd annual Crystal Brook Show. After two years of cancelled shows due to the global pandemic Covid-19, the committee and myself have been working incredibly hard to bring back our beloved community event.

This year we are very excited to have Jessica Stenson (nee Trengove) the 2 time Olympian and Commonwealth Bronze medallist marathon runner to open our Show. Jess is a great inspiration and we feel extremely privileged to have her attend.

We are also very excited to have Trent and Josh from The Lego Masters TV show attend and judge a special Lego competition for both young and old Lego fans to enjoy.

We are excited to be holding an auction of donated fleeces and other agricultural goods which will be held outside the White Elephant bar at the conclusion of the shearing.

A special fashion parade will be held showcasing fashions from local businesses and women in agriculture who have started their own fashion labels, which will prove to be a highlight.

Lastly, but not at all least we will have our traditional favourites at the show including livestock, home brew, the Ute muster, sheep dog demonstrations, Celtic games, shearing, vintage cars, petting zoo, live music, show rides and so much more....

A few new changes will occur this year with the traditional Pavilion not being used due to its aged state therefore the committee have decided to move the exhibits to the Rec centre and for trade sites to be in a marquee. Our inability to use the Pavillion is bittersweet as it has been part of the show since its early days and has many nostalgic memories. However, we must move into the future and I am sure that the move to the Rec Centre will prove to be a positive one.

None of this could happen without the tireless work of my amazing committee and Secretary (Nat Hodgson). I am proud to be a part of such a marvelous team of people who all play to their strengths and go above and beyond. I would also like to thank the kind Sponsors, who make it possible to be able to put on such an amazing event.

Lastly a shout out of thanks and gratitude to the Convenors, Judges, Stewards, Exhibitors, Prize donors and Members who all play an important role in bringing this wonderful event to life.

May 2022 be a year to all pull together and show case our amazing region and all that is fabulous about regional South Australia.
